Christ the Teacher Roman Catholic School Division #212

April Newsletter

Dear St. Theodore Families,

Thank you to the parents for your continuing support and involvement with the school, the staff and the progress of your children. The second-term Student Progress Reports and Student-led Conferences were a great success. Thank you to our SCC for sponsoring the supper and presenters of our parent workshop Building Strong Kids: Understanding Anxiety. We learned that we can sum up this topic with the three E's.

Expect worry to come. We all experience worry. Expect it! Externalized the worry. Don't internalize it.

Experiment and expose self to worry situations. Don't avoid.

Enjoy some quality time with one another during Easter. We hope that your basket will be full of joy, love and peace. Happy Easter!
